Swedish Midsummer Pole at the dedication of a monument. The many Swedish dances are all "Circle" dances and there are no ribbons. As can be seen it is a lifelong participation event. As part of the celebration the poles are covered completely with greenery.

We are planning our own Midsummer pole covering with greenery and pole raising ceremony and our own Circle dances. Come early if you want to help.

Come- Join us in the fun

EVEN MORE THINGS TO DO

Plan on coming early or staying afterward in the Smoky Mountains to ride the scenic train, enjoy the National Park, tubing with the kids on Deep Creek or try your luck at the Cherokee Casino.

COME DRESSED LIKE YOUR ANCESTORS

Be part of the action - Come dressed as your Grandma and Grandpa, maybe even your great grandparents. Everything from those wonderful ladies long dresses with wide brimmed southern belle hats or sun bonnets to Daisy Mae outfits to Civil War garb, hunting outfits to bib overalls and high top shoes. GREAT FUN With lots of photo opportunities.
